

YLD TRIAL PRACTICE SERIES 2012
Taking and Defending Effective Depositions
April 26, 2012
Nashville, TN

Program Description: You can't win a trial at deposition, but you certainly can lose one. This CLE is designed to avoid that outcome by addressing basic and intermediate deposition techniques in general personal injury cases. Attendees will hear from experienced litigators – both from the plaintiff and defense perspective – who will discuss key components of the deposition process.
