

Creditors Practice 2013: Current Developments
September 25, 2013
Tennessee Bar Center - Nashville, TN

Program Description: TBA's Creditor's Practice Section offers current developments in this area of the law. The first portion of the program will focus on the current state of rules and regulations promulgated by the CFPB, and the fallout for law firms and clients. The second portion of the program will be a discussion of the current state of licensing requirements by the Assistant General Counsel of the Collection Services Board. The third portion of the program will be a discussion of the new Tennessee statute dealing with the admissibility of business records by the two lawyers primarily responsible for its passage. The final portion of the program will be a discussion of the potential possibilities and perils of Domestic Asset Protection Trusts for creditors counsel.

Producer: Bill Shick, Buffaloe & Associates, PLC

Agenda

12:30 – 12:50 pm	Registration
12:50 – 1:00 pm	Welcome
1:00 – 2:00 pm	Federal Regulations Update – CFPB new rules & realities This segment will explain "What to expect when you are expecting a CFPB audit." Now that the CFPB has supervisory authority over larger participants in markets for consumer debt collection and their service providers, attorneys must be familiar with current compliance expectations and the ramifications of outdated compliance management systems. Matt Bevins, Buffaloe & Associates, PLC Terrance Bond, The Law Offices of Barry J. Gammons, PLLC
2:00 - 2:30 pm	Debt Collector Regulation in Tennessee Chris Whittaker, TN Dept. of Commerce & Insurance
2:30 – 3:00 pm	Defeating Double Hearsay – T.C.A. 47-22-301 et sec. Ron Cunningham, Finkelstein, Kern, Steinberg & Cunningham Kelly Dicken, Finkelstein, Kern, Steinberg & Cunningham
3:00 – 3:15 pm	BREAK
3:15 – 4:15 pm	Domestic Asset Protections Trusts Thomas B. Norris, Jr., Attorney at Law

Total Credits: 3 General