

Juvenile Law Forum 2013
December 5, 2013 – Nashville, TN
Tennessee Bar Center

The Program Description:

This year's annual forum for Juvenile law practitioners will focus on hot topics and will revisit key rules and procedures in this practice area. With topics on drug testing in juvenile court, alternatives to delinquency, a session that will revisit the Rules of Juvenile Procedure – you won't want to miss this year's program. Attendees will also hear from the Board of Professional Responsibility on ethics specifically related to juvenile law practice.

AGENDA

- |                  |  |
|------------------|--|
| 12:00-12:30 p.m. | Registration  |
| 12:30-1:30p.m.   | Drug Testing in Juvenile CourtCarl Seely, Divorce Incorporated   |
| 1:30-2:30pm      | Ethics for Juvenile Law PractitionersKevin Balkwill, Board of Professional Responsibility  |
| 2:30-2:45 p.m.   | Break   |
| 2:45-3:45 p.m.   | Alternatives to DelinquencyMichael Pugh, Parker &amp; Pugh   |
| 3:45-4:45 p.m.   | Rules of Juvenile Procedure RevisitedRae Anne Seay, Legal Aid Society of Middle Tennessee and theCumberlandsStacy Miller, Assistant District Attorney/Juvenile Court TeamLeader |